What is ELBP

Scene	Narration
1	Welcome to Canada and your French language class! As you spend time here, you will learn French and about what it is like to live in Canada.
2	In your class, your instructor uses Portfolio Based Language Assessment, or PBLA, to show you how your language is improving.
3	You will learn French over time, getting better the more you learn from your instructor and the more you practice.
4	You need to show what you've learned. To help you do that, you will receive your very own portfolio. Your teacher may call it your binder.
5	This is your binder that you will use in your FLS classroom. See you in class!

Testimonials in French

The people providing testimonials in this video are learning French. Certain parts of the transcription have been edited for greater clarity.

Voiceover: Using ELBP in class will help you learn French. Let's hear what some of the learners have to say.

Voiceover: When do you use your portfolio?

I use my portfolio all the time in class.
Every day in class and at home.
To check the tasks I did in class.
All the time. For example, to help someone find a job.
To go over my notes.
When I need to check my language level.
When I want to organize my notes and documents.
In my car, too.

Voiceover: What do you keep in your portfolio?

I keep a notebook in my portfolio. Plus all the program work sheets. Grammar exercises, vocabulary exercises.
I keep my notes in the portfolio.
There are sections on useful skills for new Canadians.
I keep my work and my homework in it.

Voiceover: How does your portfolio help you?

For me, my portfolio is like a handbook.
It's handy for reviewing and studying.
My portfolio helps me learn lots of things about Canada.
It helps me with organization, assessment, and also learning French, of course.
My portfolio helps me stay organized and learn new things.
My portfolio helps me a lot.

Voiceover: Why do you like to use your portfolio?

I like the portfolio because it is well organized.
I like to use my portfolio because it helps me learn French.
I like my portfolio because it helps me a lot.
